Day 4

Wednesday, July 27, 2022

08:30 Departure from the Hotel to the Historic Center of Asunción.

09:00 Presentation of the H2O Orchestra at the Municipal Theater of Asuncion Ignacio A. Pane.

We are received by the Mayor of Asunción, Mr. Oscar Rodriguez.

Attire: Informal

10:45 Visit to the National Pantheon of Heroes.

It began to be built in October 1863, by the then president of the Republic, Francisco Solano López, as an oratory of the Virgin of the Assumption (Asuncion).

However, as a result of the War of the Triple Alliance, the building was left unfinished.

It was later converted by presidential decree into the National Pantheon of Heroes.

Under pressure from the ecclesiastical hierarchy and citizens devoted to the Virgin, who is still considered Patroness of Paraguay and Marshal of its Armies, Dr. Felix Paiva was forced to restore the Oratory to the Virgin of the Assumption in 1937 and at the same time continued to be the National Pantheon of Heroes.

11:30 Visit to the Tourist Bureau of the National Secretariat of Tourism.

We are received by the Minister of Tourism Sofia Montiel de Afara

12:10 Visit to the Museo Casa de la Independencia.

This house has a historical importance because the main participants of our Independence used it for secret meetings. It has been restored and enriched with furniture and paintings, pictures, and items of the time. Visiting it is a rewarding experience, especially for all those who wish to feel and learn something about such a valuable historical legacy.

13:30 Lunch at Negróni Restaurant in downtown Asunción.

15:00 Shopping afternoon

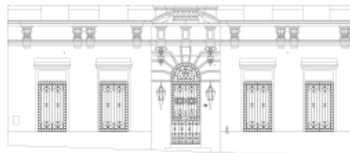

18:00 Return to Hotel Bourbon
